

LAYMAN'S MOVEMENT
MAKES PROGRESS

Salt Lake, June 3.—A meeting of the men interested in the Laymen's Movement, which was re-organized as enthusiastically in Salt Lake last March, assembled at the First Presbyterian church Tuesday night to hear the reports of Utah's delegates to the great convention held in Chicago three weeks ago, which was the culmination of the movement.

Utah's three representatives were the Rev. W. W. Fleetwood of the Good Shepherd Episcopal church of Ogden, the Rev. J. S. Rowman of the Emmanuel Baptist church, and W. C. Lyne. Mr. Fleetwood first gave his impressions of the convention and outlined the history of the movement.

ROLDO PEACOCK'S DEATH;
HIS WAS A CRUEL FATE

Ephraim, June 2.—The remains of Roldo Peacock, who was killed about four miles north of Fayette yesterday morning, were brought to his home in Sterling this morning and the wife and children are heartbroken over the affair. He left his home at about 9 o'clock yesterday morning to work on his dry farm, and as he was about half way between Sterling and Fayette he must in some manner have fallen from the wagon at about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and his body was found at about 5 by Dr. Haggan and M. Beauregard of Gunnison. The horses had followed the road for several yards and turned off to a canal where they had tried to drink. He had no doubt fallen in the spokes, and as the wheel made the first round his body was carried with it until it struck the bolster, which he held, and the body was carried in this position until the canal was reached.

Mary Jacobson, aged 22, died very suddenly at Moroni yesterday morning of heart trouble.

JENSEN MAY GET CREAMERY.

Ephraim, June 3.—The stockholders of the Salina Creamery company held a meeting Monday evening for the purpose of determining upon a way to meet some financial obligations which they have. It was decided to sell some more stock, and Manager C. M. Hansen and J. O. Ixley were appointed to look after the selling of the proposition once offered by the Jensen Creamery company was considered and the meeting decided to accept that if the Salt Lake firm was still willing to do as they said. So it may be that the Jensen company will get the management of the business.

MANTI BOY DROWNED IN GUNNISON RESERVOIR

Ephraim, June 3.—Frank Kilpack, the two-year-old son of J. Kilpack of Manti, was drowned in the Gunnison reservoir Tuesday afternoon. The drowning occurred while young Kilpack and his friend, the son of Professor Clair Reid of Provo, were taking a bath in the pool. Young Reid

In explaining the accident said that he had gotten beyond his depth and after yelling for help, he said his chum Frank rushed to his aid, and succeeded in getting him quite close to the bank, when he was apparently overcome with the cramps and sunk out of sight. The community is quite wrought up over the unfortunate affair.

NOTICE OF DELINQUENCY.

Pursuant to Section 278 of the Compiled Laws of Utah, 1907, and the authority vested in me by said section, I, the undersigned, THOMAS B. FARR, Treasurer of Ogden City, Weber County, Utah, hereby give public notice that a special tax amounting to $6,689.83 Dollars, has been levied for Sidewalk District No. 103 for the purpose of constructing Concrete Sidewalks in said district by an ordinance duly passed by the City Council of Ogden City, Utah, approved by the Mayor of said City, on May 10th, 1910, said taxes being levied on all of the abutting property at the following Streets, comprising said Sidewalk District No. 103:

All of that part of Washington Avenue from 34th to 36th streets, Ogden Avenue, from 35th to 36th streets; Adams Avenue, from 32nd to 36th streets; 25th Street from Washington to Adams Avenues, and the north side of 26th Street from Washington to Adams Avenues.

The said tax is payable in 5 installments.

The first installment becomes delinquent May 29th, 1910.
The second installment becomes delinquent May 10th, 1911.
The third installment becomes delinquent May 10th, 1912.
The fourth installment becomes delinquent May 10th, 1913.
The fifth installment becomes delinquent May 10th, 1914.

Each of said installments, except the first, shall draw interest at the rate of 7 per cent per annum, from the date of the levy as aforesaid, and if any or either of said installments shall be unpaid when they become delinquent, interest thereon shall be 10 per cent per annum, until each delinquent assessment is fully paid. Said tax shall be enforced and collected as in any other case of special tax and if not paid, the property on which said levy is made will be advertised and sold according to law. This special tax is payable at my office at the City Hall, Ogden City, Utah.
